Katherine Armantrout: Senior in vocal performance from Boulder City, Nevada. Credits include La Bohème (Mimi), Manon (Pousette), Falstaff (Nanetta), and Le Nozze di Figaro (Babarina).

Logan Bradford: BYU graduate from Cincinnati, Ohio. Credits include The Magic Flute, Tales of Hoffman, Don Giovanni, and La Bohème; Bach’s Magnificat, Handel’s Messiah, and John Rutter’s Psalmfest, Forever Plaid, All Shook Up, A Tale of Two Cities, My Fair Lady, and Songs for a New World.

Dylan and Rachel Glenn: Both study vocal performance at BYU. Met while playing the roles of Father and Mother in BYU’s Hansel and Gretel. Rachel’s recent credits include The Marriage of Figaro (Susanna). Dylan’s recent credits include The Marriage of Figaro (Count), La Bohème (Marcello), and Carmen (Dancaire).

Forrest Howell: Senior in piano performance. Pianist in Timpanogos Trio; past accompanist for BYU’s Men’s Chorus; current accompanist for BYU’s Concert Choir.

Susan Morgan: Lead singer for the Al Huish Band for more than 36 years. Her recording of her original composition, “I Am Peace,” is available on iTunes, Amazon, CD Baby, and Apple Music. She and her husband have a combined family of 9 children and 36 grandchildren.

Noteworthy: BYU’s premier nine-woman a cappella group. The ensemble combines tight harmony, vocal percussion, and humor. They enjoy singing uplifting music together to share their testimonies of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Noteworthy has reached international audiences with their music video of “Amazing Grace.”

Cody Phillips: MPA (BYU). Performed as a member of BYU’s Men’s Chorus, the International Folk Dance Ensemble, and Vocal Point (BYU’s premier nine-man a cappella group). Resides in Provo with his new wife, Mikayla.

Tyrell Wilde: Senior in vocal performance, studying with Darrell Babidge. Credits include Pirates of Penzance (Pirate King), L’elisir d’amore (Dr. Dulcamara), Le nozze di Figaro (Figaro), Manon (Le Comte des Grieux), La Bohème (Colline), and Salome (Cappadocian). Participates in Dolora Zajick’s Institute for Young Dramatic Voices.

FUTURE MUSIC EVENTS IN THE HBLL

Tonight at 6 pm – Hymn Sing, 4420 HBLL
Nov. 30 at NOON – LDS Composers near and far, HBLL Auditorium
Dec. 14 at 6 pm – CHRISTMAS Hymn Sing, 4420 HBLL
November 16, 2016, Harold B. Lee Library Auditorium

Greeting: Myrna Layton

Recordings by BYU Singers, directed by Dr. Ronald Staheli
Room in the Inn
The Baby Softly Stills

Rachel Glenn, soprano, and Dylan Glenn, baritone*
Music of Christmas

Dylan Glenn, baritone*
Son of Mary, Son of God (verses 1 and 2)

Susan Morgan, alto*
Lamb of God (verses 1 and 3)

Logan Bradford, tenor*
Arise and Sing This Christmas Morn
Light of the World (verse 1)

Members of Noteworthy: Alyssa Hazen, Jessica Johnson, and Sarah Cunha, accompanied by Caitlin Dudley
All Things Testify of Jesus
Angel Light

Cody Phillips, baritone*
In Bethlehem
Precious Jesus (verses 1 and 2)

Katherine Armantrout, soprano*
And Mary Pondered (verses 1 and 2)
God’s Own Son

Tyrell Wilde, bass*
Gifts Worthy of a King
Every Knee Shall Bow (verses 1 and 3)

* Accompanied by Forrest Howell

Watch an interview of Vanja Y. Watkins and Marvin K. Gardner discuss writing and composing “Press Forward, Saints”:

Vanja Y. Watkins (vanja.watkins@comcast.net)
- Received BA and MA from BYU
- Worked as music educator in Ogden and Salt Lake City Schools
- Taught as an adjunct professor in the BYU School of Music
- Served on the Primary General Board, 1963–70
- Served on the General Music Committee of the Church, 1973–85
- Served on the 1985 Hymnbook Executive Committee
- Composed two hymns in the current LDS hymnbook (“Press Forward, Saints” and “Families Can Be Together Forever”)
- Composed 27 songs in the LDS Children’s Songbook
- Is wife of the late Dr. Jack B. Watkins, mother of 5, grandmother of 14

Marvin K. Gardner (marv_gardner@byu.edu)
- Received BA and MA from BYU
- Worked as editor and writer at LDS Church magazines, 1978–2005 (managing editor of Liahona, assistant managing editor of Ensign)
- Joined the BYU faculty in 2005 and serves as Teaching Professor, Department of Linguistics and English Language
- Is founding editor-in-chief of stowawaymag.com and of mormoninsights.org
- Served as president of BYU’s chapter of Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society
- Served on the General Music Committee of the Church, 1981–85
- Served on the 1985 Hymnbook Executive Committee
- Has written lyrics for many hymns and songs, including “Press Forward, Saints,” “Thy Holy Word,” and “This Is My Beloved Son”
- Is husband of Mary C. Gardner, father of 6, grandfather of 14